Method

For the Chicken

- Dice the chicken into pieces and put into a medium sized bowl with the Cajun spice and the oil. Mix until completely coated and then thread onto metal or wooden skewers with some vegetables between each piece of chicken.
- These skewers can be cooked in two ways
- Cook on a hot barbecue for 10-12 minutes or until the chicken is cooked through.
- Place on a baking tray lined with baking parchment and cook in a preheated oven (180C/350F/Gas Mark 4) for 18-20 minutes until chicken is cooked through.

For the Sauce

- Finely dice the onion, garlic, chilli & ginger and cook in a little oil over a low heat for 3-5 minutes. Add in the peanut butter, cream and crème fraîche at this stage and continue to cook on a gentle simmer for approximately 10 minutes. Correct the consistency with the water.

- Season with the soy sauce and the lime juice and garnish with the chopped spring onions just before you serve.
- Serve the chicken skewers with boiled rice and satay sauce.
